Why Sunderbans?

November to May is a great time in Sunderbans, a UNESCO world natural heritage site & the world's largest delta, and whose Mangrove forests and islands has the highest Tiger density in the world.

These numbers make it among the premier destination in India for wildlife enthusiasts & naturalists.

The Royal Bengal Tigers

The Sunderbans has the highest Tiger density in the world and though they do not mind a human meal, every now and then, the shy cats are extremely elusive and very rarely seen.

And when they do choose to be seen, they are a glorious sight to behold!

A Typical Sunderbans Camp Itinerary

Day 1: In the morning you will be picked up from Calcutta and transferred to Sonakhali jetty through beautiful countryside and rural bazaar's with stopovers at a local tea shop and fishermen's villages. You will arrive at Sonakhali mid morning and will be greeted with morning tea and an orientation by the local guide.

Welcome aboard the boat for a two hour cruise through rivers Hogol, Gogor, Durgaduani and Gumdi. An optional stopover is available at Gosaba - one of the earliest human settlements in the Sunderbans, to visit the house of Sir Dannel Hamilton, a Scottish banker who initiated the first co-operative movement of India here.

After arriving at Bali Island, check in the beautiful eco lodge - Sunderbans Jungle Camp. Experience a three hour Birding and Game cruise to Sudhanyakhali watch tower through creeks and canals, searching for the elusive tiger, as well as monkeys, dolphins, otters and further array of fauna in the afternoon. You will return to camp by evening greeted with tea and snacks and Sunderban's orientation by one of the camps poacher-turned-guide. A sumptuous local cuisine from the village's organic farm will end your day of discovery at Sunderbans Jungle Camp.

Day 2: After a filling breakfast you will begin your whole day of Game Cruising and Bird Touring to Netidhopani watchtower (Subject to weather permitting) including crab catching and fishing expeditions from the fragile country boats. Enjoy on board lunch in your cruise boat.

Back to camp in the evening where you are warmly invited for an evening cultural experience by the local rural theatre (Bonobibi Yatra) performed by the villagers. The theatre tells the interesting story of the Tiger Lord, Forest God, Goddesses, fishermen and honey collectors using songs & dances.

Day 3: After breakfast you will go on a guided Village Walk where you will have the opportunity to meet the local people to gauge an insiders perspective of their lives and complete your understanding of the Sunderbans. You will be delighted by their tales wonderful and learning more about their lifestyle including their local crafts, cuisines, indigenous farming and household techniques etc. by the villagers. You will finish your wonderful Sunderbans Eco Holiday with a guided adventure and exploratory cruise in a manually-oared country boat.

Day 4: Departure from Sunderbans after breakfast. You will be given a complimentary drop back to Kolkata.
